

An underwater scene from a cave dive. On the left, a large black cylindrical light fixture hangs from a rope. In the center, two silver scuba tanks are suspended. The background is dark and rocky, with some light filtering through from the left. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

New World Record
for the longest penetration in cave diving
9 October 2009

presented by

Nuno Gomes

New World Record
Longest cave traverse Distance 17 Kilometres

Leszek Czarnecki

9/10/2009

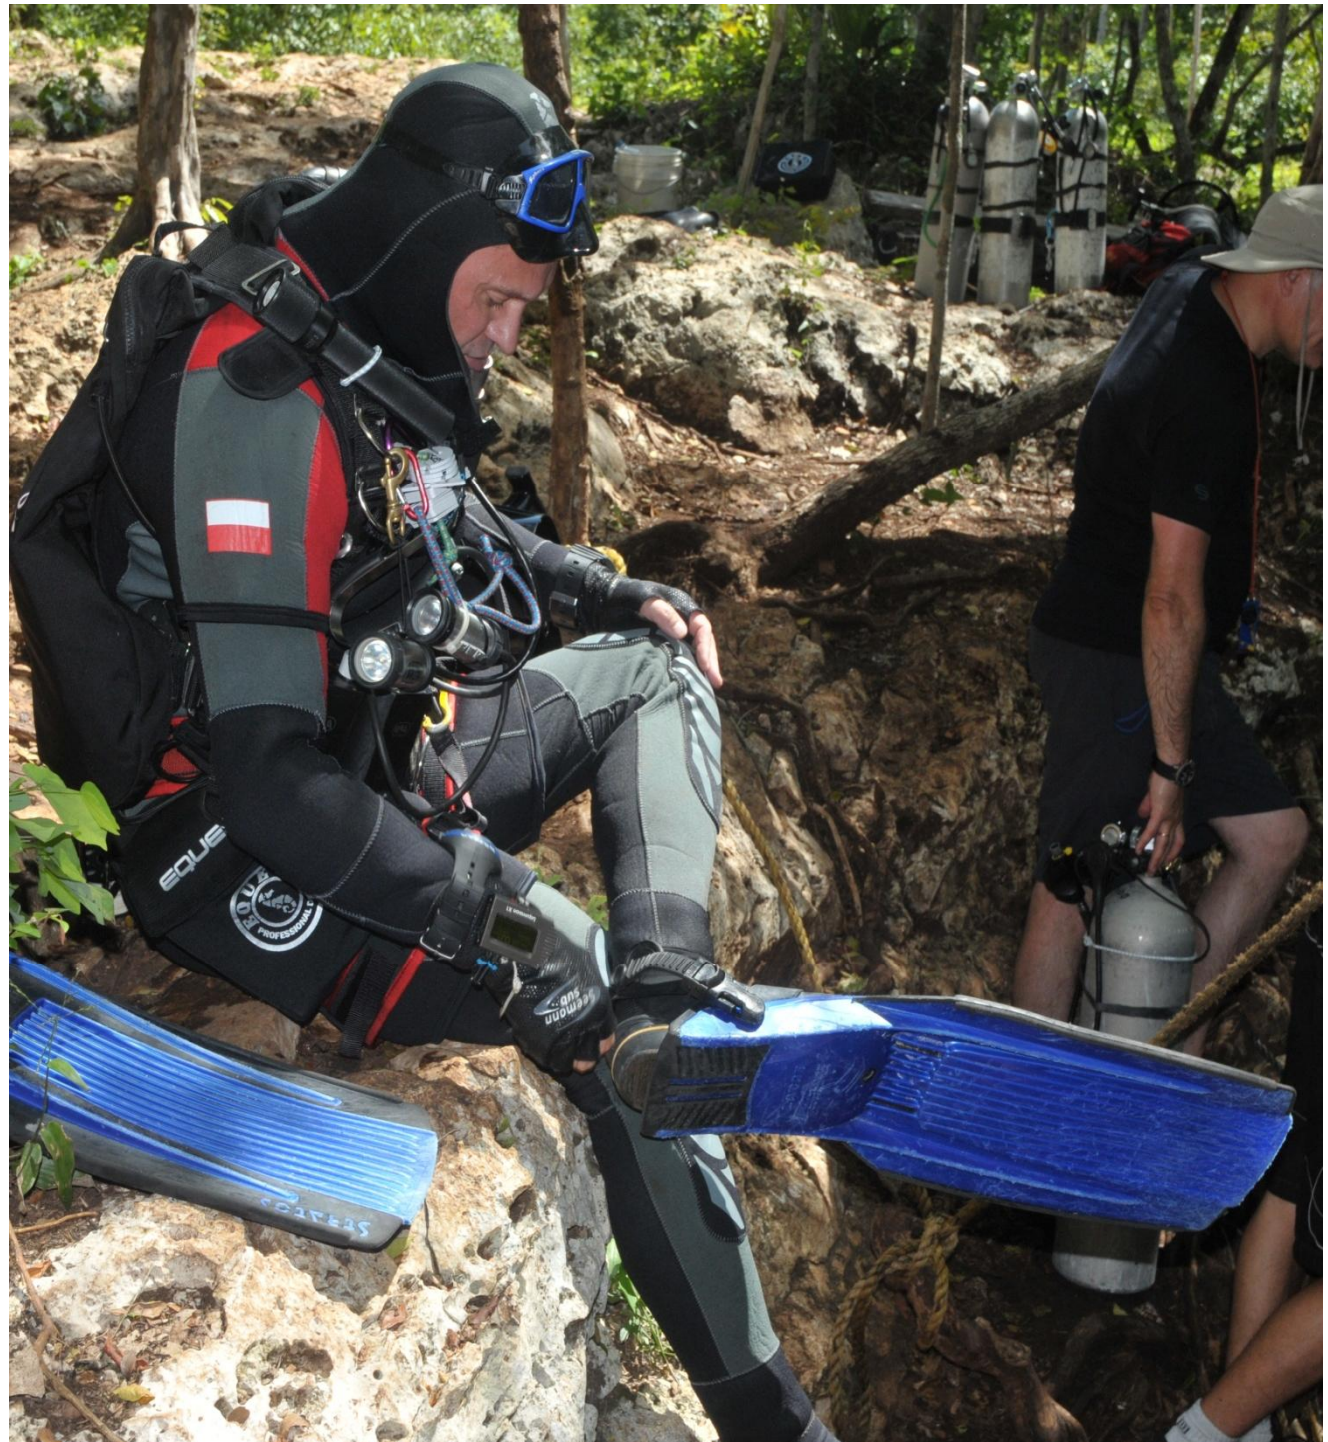

9 hours 58 minutes

Max depth 72m

Dos Ojos cave system -
from PIT to Milano

Used gases:
trimix 15/45, air,
EAN 50, EAN 40

Regs: Apex, Cyklon 5000

two years preparation - 4 trips for two weeks

total deco time 45 min

total cylinders used - 28 (just LC)

*„Thank you all for your great support”
Leszek Czarnecki*

BRUBECK®
BODY GUARD

BRUBECK